Map Our View recently purchased 6 of the choice centers to cut steak from beef display cases. The rare medium strategies were tough, dry, without patches, and dirt hard white strings at. They were priced at $29.99/lb. which is very expensive. 3 of the 5 dinies made ... don't finish the stek 5-6 oz. We (have allme) been embarrassed with the very poor quality of meat. Yesterday, I recorded my complaint with the department's assistant meat manager. He blamed the poor quality on the meat knife. I asked where the meat came from and told the Midwest. I'm from Illinois and we have the best filled Mignon steaks there. We can buy top quality thick first 8 oz. Fillet Mignon at Walmart in Davenport, IA for $19.00/lb. The assistant department manager said bringing in my receipt and would replace the steak in no charge. It was beautiful, but we sent our receipts away. I will keep my receipts in the future, if we risk buying again, because I don't trust the quality of the steaks of Jensen's on Highway 111 in Palm Springs.More thank goodness for Jensen's prepared meal! I can stop at home at work and have dine on the table in 5 minutes. Delicious poach salmon, roasted chicken breast, beef bread, skin pie, etc. More on weekends to have a smoker in the... parking lots and ribbons, sausage and more. And Jensen's bakery makes the most addictive bread in the world.
